

W. C. Brennan Resigned--The Board of Control Accepted Resignation Immediately-- Investigation Will Go On--The Nationalists Also Get Arms Into Ireland--Quiet in Mexico

PENDING MEDIATION HAS STAGE CENTRE

Washington and Mexico Await Moves by the Three Envoys.

U. S. Admiral Seized British Property, But London Says It's Regular.

(By Times Special Wire).
Washington, April 28.—With the signing of the pendulum in the Mexican crisis, Huerta's formal acceptance of the good offices of the South American diplomats, President Wilson and his advisers today awaited the setting of the stage on which representatives of Argentina, Brazil and Chile were to pave the way to peace. The early hours to-day the envoys remained in conference, proposing preliminary plans of proposed mediation. Their next move, expected today, it was suggested, would be a request to the Washington and the Huerta Governments for statements of probable demands each would make preliminary to any attempt at formal mediation. The next step would depend upon the nature of those replies. Upon them probably would be based the proposals intended for submission to the Washington Government and Huerta.

Huerta's reply, conveyed through the Minister for Foreign Affairs to Mr. Riano, Spanish Ambassador in Washington, was received late last night. It was expected, because Mr. Riano had received private advice from the Huerta Government, would accept, and the South American envoys had been at work all day on that assumption.

"Things look much better now," Secretary Daniels said. "We're getting Americans out of Mexico. That's the important thing now."

BRENNAN DENIES CRAFT, HAS CLEAR CONSCIENCE

Claims Credit For the New System Which Is Now In Vogue At City Hall.

Job will Be Split Up According To Plan Of City Engineer Macallum.

While rumors of resignations over the City Hall as an aftermath to the investigation by Ald. Tom, Robinson's committee have been flying around in all quarters for a week or more, the actual decision this morning of W. C. Brennan, secretary of the Board of Works, to quit the municipal service immediately came as a surprise to many. The official's formal resignation was submitted to City Engineer Macallum at an early hour to-day. The latter appeared before the controllers at 10 o'clock and handed it to the Mayor, as chairman. Ten minutes later it was accepted. Controller Cooper moved that such action be taken, and was supported by Controller Morris and the other members of the board. It was agreed to pay Mr. Brennan two months' salary. Secretary Brennan's action did not come unexpectedly to Mayor Allan, Controller Cooper or Engineer Macallum. They all said the situation had been discussed for some time, and it was not surprising that the resignation had come to-day. The resignation was accepted by the board at 10 o'clock and handed it to the Mayor, as chairman. Ten minutes later it was accepted. ### SLIPPED ONE OVER ON INVESTIGATORS

Did Tory Members Do It Because the Committee Was Liberal?

New System Planned Without Consulting Robson and His Colleagues.

While Chairman Robson and the other members of the investigating committee are determined to go right on with their inquiry, despite the resignation of the secretary of the Board of Works, Mayor Allan and the Controllers do not look for any more resignations. On the other hand, there is persistent talk about the assistant engineer, W. Hollingsworth, being asked to retire from the civic service. There are also rumors of the city engineer himself being placed in this position, but the higher authorities of the city are not expected to be the first and last just now.

Engineer Macallum cannot understand why the committee is after him. It is, he claims, not fair to him. He has always done what he considered in the interests of his department, and will continue to do so.

NATIONALISTS, TOO, TRY GUN-RUNNING

Other Side in Ulster Gets Arms.

Big Supply Landed at Donegal.

(By Times Special Cable).
London, Ireland, April 28.—The Irish Nationalist Volunteers, a body similar in organization to the Ulster Volunteer Force, made arms even with their political opponents in the course of last night by successfully landing a large consignment of arms.

The weapons, which are said to have been brought from America, were taken ashore at a remote spot on the coast of the county of Donegal, in the far west of Ulster.

A strange steamer had been seen off the coast for three successive nights. Late last night a number of fishing craft approached, took off the cargo, and succeeded in evading the coast guard and landing the rifles, which were quickly distributed.

The size of the consignment is unknown, but it is believed to have been considerable, although not equalling the 40,000 rifles and 500,000 rounds of ammunition the Unionists received on April 25.

NEW COMPANIES

Hamilton Capital Interested in Several of Them.

This week's Ontario Gazette contains notice of the incorporation of Hamilton Fletcher Gas Company, limited, by the law firm of Bruce, Bruce & Cousens. The company is authorized to utilize the Delvik-Hocher patents and to manufacture all sorts of gas appliances. The capital is $40,000.

A provincial charter has been granted to the Mulligan Company, limited, the incorporators being the firm of Biggar & Trevelyan. The capital is $20,000.

Messrs. Robert Lynch, Joseph Job, Reginald Thompson, J. Gilbert and L. P. Stoughton have incorporated as the Toronto & Hamilton Electric Company, with a capital of $200,000.

Northwest Motors Limited, in which a company capital of $100,000 is to carry on a general automobile and garage business. The incorporators are D. B. Wood, C. W. Fleming, S. D. Biggar, A. P. Goering, H. Summers and Sam. Gallagher.

Mr. S. J. Gies, N. Goddard, Geo. Herb, C. Quance, C. C. Cusson, and J. H. Taylor have secured a provincial charter for the Hamilton & Spirit Company, limited, with a capital of $40,000.

REBELS WINNING

Villa's Forces Are Gaining in Their Struggle

(By Times Special Wire).
Vera Cruz, April 28.—Conflicting reports regarding rebel operations continue to come from the capital. The officials of the government and the newspapers insist that the rebels are gaining no ground, but private information reports that great headway has been made. Mr. Luis Potosi has been taken, and that the Federals generally are disorganized.

General Velasco, who was defeated at Torreon by Villa, and in the subsequent fighting in that district, has succeeded in reaching the capital, according to the official reports. He had a handful of the forces which had been placed under him to defend Torreon. General Velasco was twice wounded, in the arm and in the leg. He was accompanied by General Argumedo, who was seriously wounded. General Pona was left among the dead. With General Velasco were 600 wounded soldiers. All the remainder of his force were killed or injured, or captured or deserted to the rebels.

PLUCKY GIRLS

Alma College Students Nabbed Male Intruder.

(By Times Special Wire).
St. Thomas, Ont., April 28.—A young lady student at Alma Ladies' College here was awakened by a noise about 2 o'clock this morning, and, quietly investigating, discovered a man in the corridor. The other girls were aroused, and, while some stood guard at the windows and exits from the corridors, others tried to arouse the principal, his son and the janitor. These three arrived and took the man, who was still surrounded by the determined girls into custody. The police were called by telephone and the fellow was brought in the cell. He gave his name as Thomas, and pretended to be intoxicated or drugged. He had climbed a fire escape of the second story, and gained entrance through a window. Before he had time to secure any plunder, it was his object, the plucky young lady students nabbed him.

The Exposition chorus will practice at the Association Hall on Wednesday. Those who have not already registered are asked to be on hand at twenty minutes to eight.

LEAVING Y. M. C. A.

Geo. Tillie Will Have Something to Tell Directors

Mr. George Tillie, assistant secretary of the Central Young Men's Christian Association, announced this morning that he was severing his connection with the institution. Some time ago Mr. Tillie had an offer of a lucrative position at Ottawa, the situation offering great opportunities for association work. It was his intention to hand in his resignation and accept, but unforeseen circumstances have arisen and while he intends leaving the local branch in the first of July, he will remain in the city. He intimated that he had some information to lay before the directors that would make them sit up and take notice.

ARCHBISHOP'S RESIGNATION.

Following the announcement of the withdrawal of his resignation to the Archbishop Hamilton announces that he will submit it to the General Synod, at its meeting in Vancouver in September. His successor would then be elected about the beginning of November.

SOAK HIM, SURE

This Sort of Nuisance Should Be Suppressed.

Pier Chief Ten Eyck is out with a warning to bicyclists and motorists to exercise more care when following the fire vehicles to a fire. At noon to-day the department was called to answer an alarm on Dundas street. The auto truck was travelling up King street at a rate of thirty miles per hour, when a young man on a motorcycle, who was following the fire engine, was seen to pass up in the rear with his car and, passing the auto truck, was unable to pass the motorcycle. He was going from one side of the road to the other, so fast was he travelling. When he finally did pass, the chief narrowly escaped striking the cycle, which was going against the oncoming fire engine. The firemen are in possession of the number, and a summons will likely be issued against the owner.

—Rev. Peter H. Birrell, brother Ald. Wm. Birrell, is in the city just now, brought home by the illness of his mother, Mrs. Birrell, 37 St. George Street. Mr. Birrell is eighty-two years of age, and this is practically her first illness. It is, however, a serious one.

ASTOR'S WEDDING

On Original Date, But Will Be Very Quiet

(By Times Special Wire).
New York, April 28.—The wedding of Miss Helen Dismore Huntington and Vincent Astor is to take place on Thursday, the date originally set, although the illness of Mr. Astor necessitated a change in the plans, and the ceremony will be performed at Hopland House, the Huntington home, located in St. Margaret's Church, Staatsburgh, N.Y.

The ceremony will be performed at 12:30 o'clock, and will be attended by a small assembly of relatives and friends, not exceeding fifty in number. The only bridesmaid will be her sister, Miss Alice Huntington, and Herman Oelrich will serve as best man.

No arrangements for the honeymoon have been made by Mr. Astor, but it is expected that he and his bride will remain at his estate at Ferncliffe until his health improves sufficiently to plan for a trip abroad his yacht.

CARDINAL BEGIN

Bishop Dowling Receives Official Notice.

A telegram from Bishop Hoey of Quebec, to His Lordship Bishop Dowling, this morning, contained the first official announcement of the elevation of Archbishop Bishop to the dignity of a Cardinal.

Cardinal Begin is the only Canadian Cardinal now, and the second Canadian to hold that exalted office. His predecessor was the late Cardinal Taschereau. The new cardinal is a warm personal friend of Bishop Dowling, and they have visited each other many times during many years past.

GLAD TO BE OUT.

Half an hour after his resignation was accepted by the Board of Control, Secretary Brennan left the city hall, not again to return as assistant of the Board of Works. Spoken to by the news-to-day men, he said he was glad to get rid of it. I feel somewhat relieved now. I may possibly go down there this afternoon for a little while, but I'm through. I guess I have satisfied some people with my resignation, and I think everything should be all right now.

SMALL FIRES.

Last night evening the fire brigade extinguished a blaze at the Canada Screw Company plant, Birge street, which started in the rear from some unknown cause. The damage will not reach $100.

A small fire at the residence of Albert Barrett, 41 Dundas street, on noon to-day gave the firemen a run. The damage will amount to $25.

Pineapples For Preserving.

On first assignment of pineapples for preserving arrived to-day. Special prices by the dozen or by the case. Excellent standard grade sugar. The pineapples, and in one hundred pound cases, at rock-bottom prices—A. G. Bain & Co.

—On Monday afternoon, May 11, at 2 o'clock, Judge Stirling will hear appeals from the decisions of the Court of Revision. The session will be held in the city council chamber.

Robbed of her Name

The footman glanced at the card, and then at Mrs. Paul. She had drawn a veil over her face, and the experienced eyes of the footman detected the lady in her figure and manner, and he said respectfully: "Quite right, miss; come this way, please."

They followed him up the great stairs into a small ante-room to the drawing-room or salon, and, indicating a lounge, he asked them to be seated. "I will tell her grace you have come," he said, "but I bring you some wine or coffee."

Mrs. Paul declined with thanks, but Paul was too overinclined by the magnificence of the place to utter a word. At last he crept a little nearer Mrs. Paul, and whispered:

"What a splendid place, Mabel! I didn't think there were such places as this in a home. Why, it is as large as a theatre! And all this velvet and plush and gold trimmings. Mabel, I feel half afraid."

Mrs. Paul's heart was beating wildly, but from a very different cause. As she saw the splendour of the place, she was seized by a sense of awe. She felt that she was in a place where she was not wanted, and she felt that she was in a place where she was not wanted.

The adjoining salon had been empty until now, excepting for the footman, who was now standing in the doorway, waiting for the lady to enter. As Mrs. Paul spoke, one of the servants threw open a door, and a lady in a blue dress, more than middle age, swept into the room, with a quick yet graceful step. She was plainly, but handsomely dressed, and even if Mrs. Paul had not remembered seeing her photograph, she would have known her by the look of her face.

The lounge upon which they sat was placed near the opening between the two rooms, and Paul, in his timidity, and gradually got nearer and nearer the heavy plush curtains, so that he was almost hidden.

The duchess stood in the centre of the salon and looked round; then came toward the lady, and, as she approached, Mrs. Paul raised her veil and stood up. The duchess looked surprised for a moment; then came forward and held out her hand.

"Oh, I did not know that anyone had come!" she said, with a charming smile.

Mrs. Paul, who was mistaken for one of the visitors, and bowed. As she did so, a footman hurried up and presented Mr. Stapleton's card to the duchess.

"She looked at it and then to Mrs. Paul, with a slight smile, and said: 'Let me see this card.'"

"Oh, Mr. Stapleton's people, of course, yes," said Mrs. Paul. "Let me see this card."

Mrs. Paul was about to correct her, but the duchess went on:

"It is very kind of you to come and sing for us, Miss Alfred. I hope the people won't talk too much. It is very stupid, but they always will chatter, won't they? And then, when the music is over, they will look at Paul, with a kindly smile, as he slipped off his coat and bowed."

"Paul Foster, your grace," said Mrs. Paul, who was mistaken for one of the visitors, and bowed. As she did so, a footman hurried up and presented Mr. Stapleton's card to the duchess.

"Oh, yes, Paul Foster, she said, still looking at him. 'He plays the violin, doesn't he? Well, I hope the people won't talk too much. It is very stupid, but they always will chatter, won't they? And then, when the music is over, they will look at Paul, with a kindly smile, as he slipped off his coat and bowed.'"

"Raising her hand, she brought a footman to her side, and said: 'Bring some coffee, please,' she said. Then, with a graceful bow, she glided into the next room."

"Mabel, a duchess is not so very awful, after all," said Mrs. Paul. "Why, she spoke to us as simply as if she were—were Mrs. Barker!"

Mrs. Paul smiled, and then said to Paul: "The higher the rank the simpler the manner, but the visitors were so—"

To-morrow, a Special Display of Fine SILK DRESS GOWNS

Our European buyer must have dived into the most exclusive European factories to secure such lovely fabrics as go on exhibition to-morrow. There are scores of patterns that are not even shown by the travelers from across the Atlantic, and it is only those buyers who go direct to the mills who have any chance of securing them.

THE NEW CREPES are lovely indeed, and are so cleverly woven that they will drape as perfectly as the most expensive crepe de chine; mostly floral and Dufly Vanden patterns. Splendid value at 15c, 20c and 35c yard.

French Dressmakers are making up large numbers of Chiffon Dressmakers—also well as indoor wear. When you see them on display to-morrow, the room will be out of doors. Some of the patterns are: floral, also, forget-me-nots on white; Rose on white, also on white or pale blue; Mauve on black, etc. Then, for Kimmies there are large grape and raspberry patterns. Many grounds. Splendid value at 50c, 50c and 75c a yard.

NEW RAINCOATS—All double width; shades of Tango, Old Rose, Marine, Cream, White, Madonna Blue, Pale Blue, etc. Price—50c yard.

Corns May Still Consider Offer Made By Hamilton

McGraw Fears No Team In the National League But Pirates

Believes Cubs and Phillies Are Greatly Weakened, With Dodgers Stronger Than Ever

The first reproduction of the famous opening against the Phillies at the Polo Grounds last Thursday afternoon was given in private to the press and television at the Municipal City Company at 71 West Twenty-ninth street.

Only two of the expected three reels of film have been prepared. The first of these dealt with the famous opening inning, the second with the dramatic final presentations, the arrival of Mayor Mitchell and his official tongue-out of the ball were screened a few

The second film was devoted exclusively to the feature plays of the game and was incidentally to the dispersal of the big crowd.

The pictures of the game are good and impressive. The movement of the ball and the players could be followed closely.

John M. Ward, business manager of the Brooklyn Federals, announces that the labor troubles which have retarded building operations at Washington Park have been adjusted and that the "iron" team will open its home season on May 11, even if it has to utilize an unfinished plant.

"The whole trouble was a squabble between the carpenters and the iron-

the Brooklyn Federals, announces that the labor troubles which have retarded building operations at Washington Park have been adjusted and that the Ward Bros' team will open its home

"The whole trouble was a squabble between the carpenters and the ironworkers," said Ward. "It was simply a question about placing the claim on our grand stand. This has always been the work of the carpenters. But the ironworkers insisted that as part of the chairs were metal they should be allowed to do the work. The carpenters maintained that as part of the seats were of wood it was their right."

"We will open on schedule time though we may have to open under difficulties. Certainly we can have no roof on the park. But who wants a roof in May? I am sure our patrons will be more pleased without the roof if it rains we will not be able to play anyhow. And if the sun shines it will be far more pleasant than it would be in the shade.

The playing field was left in rather ily heavy hauling. But the ground has been levelled off and a force of men is resodding. We may have to play under a few difficulties at first. But if we do we will not be the first that broke into baseball that way."

Manager Joe Kelly, of the Toronto Club, insists that if Robert Ward, president of the Brookfeds, was "sincere" in his declarations that he would not ted baseball players under contract at least Mr. Ward's agents were not. Furthermore, Joe has the proof to back up his assertions. He exhibits letters and telegrams from Bill Bradley, manager of the Brookfords, to "Mickey" Bunny Hearne, recently released to Toronto by McGraw.

"Bradley has been trying all spring to wean Hearne away from organized baseball," said Kelly. "Moreover, he

London, April 28.—Danny Mann, the American jockey, was married at

Dr. George, Hanover Square, who attended the ceremony was Lord Fraser, who wore a diamond and a sapphire pendant. The bride also received some other presents of value.

The couple will spend the honeymoon in Scotland, where they will make a long stay for the benefit of Mr. Maher's health.

TETRARCH WILL NOT START

London, April 28.—It is practically certain that Tetrarch will not run in the Two Thousand Guineas. The probable starters are: Sunny Lake, France; Second, Corcora, Kensington.

RACING IN FRANCE.
Paris, April 28.—Mont d'Or, bred by Joseph A. Widener, of Philadelphia, yesterday won the Prix des Filles of the Saint Cloud races.

Shawkey Hurt

(By Times Special Wire)

Philadelphia, April 23.—Robert Shawkey, one of the young right hand pitchers of the Philadelphia Americans, dislocated the thumb of his pitching hand in practice yesterday and probably will miss at least part of the game for several weeks.

Oh, this pernicious vice of gambling!

Ed. Moore.
